Igniting Transformation Through Coaching

Are you...

☆ Passionate about awakening the potential you see in others?
☆ Eager to create a more energized life at home and at work?
☆ Excited about human growth and development?

In this two-day workshop you will learn to use core coaching skills to help people realize much more than they think is possible.

Deepen your awareness of the body, mind, emotions, and needs to unlock greater wisdom and resourcefulness. When you discover the unique gifts and strengths of individuals and help them discover fresh insights and compelling action plans, you will renew your own internal resources.

Expand the view of what is possible and translate desire into action. You will leave the workshop with renewed confidence as a change agent who unleashes power and potential in life, relationships, and work.

Practice New Coaching Skills

☆ Explore three levels of listening
☆ Learn the art of asking powerful questions
☆ Help clients identify the needs that underlie feelings
☆ Acknowledge the contribution of others
☆ Create new opportunities for transformation
☆ Expand inner wisdom and resourcefulness to initiate creative solutions

This workshop is for you if you are a:

• Teacher, therapist, or social change leader who wants to help people transform their dreams into action.
• Leader, executive, manager, or business owner who wants to learn new ways to motivate people.
• Human resource professional, consultant or change agent who wants to develop a supportive culture in the work place.
Facilitators:

Martha Lasley, an executive coach, designs training and coaching programs that develop passionate leaders and learning organizations. She coaches leaders and social change activists, and designs results-oriented leadership development programs.

Virginia Kellogg, Master Certified Coach, has been a catalyst in the coaching profession since 1996. She creates a safe, natural space for connection and embraces a holistic approach to coaching – integrating mind, body, spirit and soul. She has a heart for bringing coaching to diverse populations and international communities.

Both Martha and Virginia are founding partners at Leadership that Works and Coaching that Works. They facilitate coaching courses at Kripalu and the New York Open Center.
